A. W. S. Holds Mass
Meeting TomorrowInteresting Acts Featured at Little Theatre, Music
Will Prevail

By Almarie Porteous

Boys Beware! Let nary a one of you be seen in the vicinity of the Little Theatre, Thursday, April 1, between 11 and 12, for the A. W. S. are holding a mass meeting. The reason for the great demand of privacy is that the girls are planning to do take-offs on some of the various men's organizations here on the campus and they would feel dreadful if some snoop male found his way to this, the scene of their triumph.

Helen Louise Cox, winner of the California Hour, will entertain as will Bee Zisser, Connie James, and Evelyn Fitzpatrick, who is quite adept at tap dancing. After the program, refreshments will be served consisting of cup cakes and ice cream. Dawn Wilson is to act as mistress of ceremonies. Betty Brown is chairman of the affair and is assisted by her committee of Muriel Anderson, Louise Parodi, Dorothy Peterson, Kay Landerville, Victoria Regier, Bee Zisser, Dorothy Mantell, and Virginia Stolte.

Girls are urged to attend this mass rally for women and display their school spirit as well as sustain the ranks of women.

Havoc and Chaos
At Music Dance

By Rosemary Alexander

It seems that the active minds of the sponsors of the Music Federation event that was held last Monday, got the brilliant idea of sending one hundred taxis to pick up about 500 high school students, from all over California, who were staying at various hotels all over the city.

Well, all the taxis arrived at once, and according to Mr. Nee, when he viewed the confusion, or perhaps we should say chaos, thought that perhaps he had run into a "Night at the Opera" at State.

Added to a, let's be nice and say "Confused situation," it was necessary for Leon Minear, president of the Music Federation, to explain a few fine points of the law to several rather unrelenting picketers who were quite put out because of the fact that the members of the orchestra were not union members. Oh yes! the law was represented by about 10 policemen. Oh, well, what's a few policemen more or less!

K. P.'s Hold Candy Sale

In an attempt to raise money to purchase toys for the Frederic Burk nursery school children, the Kindergarten-Primary club is sponsoring a candy sale to be held today noon on the balcony of the Women's gym.

Mischievous Gags
Rule Campus . . .
Staters Beware!

On the calendar it looks no different from the other 364 days of the year. The virtual obscurity of the date is, in itself, one of the most deceptive things about it. But, wittingly or unwittingly, April 1 packs more dynamite than even far-famed Fourth of July.

Why? Well, probably because of the terrific suspense that makes a man roll his eyes nervously while walking along, while glistening lines follow in the wake of tiny beads of sweat rolling down the face of the miserable, furtive looking, person.

All this because of April Fool's day? Yes, and more. For the action often lasts from 12 a. m. of the First to 12 a. m. of the Second. Mischievous mother will probably start it off by rolling you out of bed at six o'clock in the yawning to whisper in your dazed, bewildered face that you are wanted on the phone. The fun starts when you find the receiver on the hook, and—well, for the rest of the day, "hang on to your hat, Knute—and pray!"

Varieties Seeks
Talent for Apr. 9 Show

WANTED: One or more good male vocalists for radio work. Also can use four male voices in a quartet for radio. Need novelty acts of all types except instrumental. Apply to Will Smith, Bill Buchan, or Tim Guiney for auditions.

San Francisco State's Varsity Varieties will again take to the air on Friday, April 9. Station KYA will release the program locally for the Orange Network of the California Radio System.

Search for specialty acts for the next program was continuing today on the campus. "We are trying to give as many people as possible a chance to make a place for themselves on the Varsity Varieties show," said Bill Buchan. "We need male vocalists and specialty numbers. We are particularly interested in getting a balanced program. Any persons interested can contact Tim Guiney, Will Smith or myself through the mail boxes in the Co-op."

No definite cast has been announced for the next broadcast. Will Smith and Sarita Canedo will continue in their roles as master of ceremonies and "Friday." Helen Cox will again be starred in a solo number as will Phil Ford.

At least four numbers are to be filled on the program. Policy of the program to present new talent will give at least four people a chance on the program.

FLASH!

All girls interested in entering the Intercollegiate World's Fair Beauty Contest are urged to attend tomorrow's A. W. S. Mass Rally.

"Important information will be given at that time," stated Bill Ferem.

College Honors Tenth Anniversary of President at Decennial Dinner Tomorrow Night at Western Women's ClubIntercollegiate World's Fair Plans
Completed As Date Approaches

Final arrangements for Alpha Phi Gamma's coming Intercollegiate World's Fair at Roberts Field were virtually complete Monday, according to Will Smith, chairman.

All clubs and organizations were urged to contact either the chairman or Elsa Magnus, fraternity president of the local chapter, in regard to exhibits or concessions. It will be necessary to have a complete list of booths by Saturday, Smith said. In response to many questions on the booth arrangement it was stated that the fraternity would set up the fundamental framework and shelves for concessions or exhibits but that all decorative or special work would be the responsibility of the participating club. Smith emphasized the fact that all possible cooperation would be given competing organizations. A cup will be given to the club staging the most unique and original exhibit or concession.

Bill Ferem heads a committee of three composed of himself, Billy Hammond and Marian Irwin to select the contenders in the Beauty Contest which will be staged to pick San Francisco State's representative in the Golden Gate Exposition contest, the winner of which will go to the Paris International Exposition as Western America's representative. Ferem's committee will have final say about all contenders, but it was pointed out that every girl in the college would be given consideration. A cup goes to winner of this contest on April 5th.

A torch relay will be the opening event. Runners will carry the flame from the New Exposition Building to Roberts Field and open the Fair by setting fire to a block at the north end of the field.

The California Grays as a guard of honor, the Columbia Park Boys in a demonstration, numerous drill teams, drum corps, and other features will enliven the evening, according to Smith. Later announcements as to the teams competing will be made in the Gater for Friday.

Final Appeal For
Song Contest Entrants

"In order to enter into open competition with the 'so-called' higher institutions of learning, it is generally conceded that more 'spirit' is deemed necessary within the portals of State. To forward this program, a contest has been devised wherein any one student or any two or three students may get together and produce something necessary and vital to the future of this college; namely a good victory song and a fine alma mater hymn."

With these words, Bud Decker, chairman of the song contest, is making a final appeal to all students interested in entering the contest. The deadline is next Friday, April 2 at 4 p.m.

Any registered student of San Francisco State College in legal possession of a student body card is eligible to enter. All copy must be turned in to Bud Decker personally or in his post box, 1193.

Prof. Weniger Comes
To S. F. State Again

Professor Charles Weniger, instructor of speech and journalism at Pacific Union College, accompanied by five or six of his speech majors, is to make a return courtesy visit to San Francisco State College. Dr. Schull and Miss Casebolt of the speech department made a visit there last week and returned commenting on the beautiful buildings of the campus.

The institution has a radio broadcasting system through which broadcasts can be made to every room in the building and is also a splendid device for speech correction. The college has turned out some of the best speech teachers in the state and Miss Casebolt stated that on behalf of the speech department she will be glad to welcome Prof. Weniger and his students. This return visit is one of several that the department is planning for the future.

Student, Faculty and Civic Leaders to Honor Prexy
Drama To Be Given

September, 1927—Dr. Alexander C. Roberts assumes presidency of San Francisco State Teachers College.

April, 1937—Students, faculty, and civic and educational leaders join in honoring Dr. Alexander C. Roberts on tenth anniversary as president of San Francisco State College.

"Ten Years Ago" will provide the theme for the Decennial Dinner to be tendered Doctor Alexander C. Roberts tomorrow night at the Western Women's Club. The dinner will be attended by students, faculty, civic and educational leaders and will be a tribute to the ten years of service given to the college by Dr. Roberts.

"Ten Years Ago" will provide a unique setting for the affair. One of the features of the program for the evening will be a dramatic sketch written and directed by Miss Jessie Casebolt and portraying the outstanding events that have occurred in the history of the college since Dr. Roberts assumed the presidency in 1927. Cast members include Will Smith, George Mirande, Carola Beetz, Sarita Canedo, and Clem Zannini.

Dr. Edna Barney will be the toastmaster of the evening. She will introduce, as guest speaker, Dr. Walter F. Dexter, state superintendent of public instruction. Other guests include Mayor Angelo Rossi, and educational leaders from the Pacific Coast.

A limited number of tickets are still available. Price to students is $1.25.

Newman Club Dance
April 9th At Palace

The concert room of the Palace Hotel will be the setting for the Semi-formal dance to be held on April 9, by the Newman Club.

Bids for this event have been extended to the Presidents of the Newman Clubs of Stanford, San Jose State and San Francisco Junior College. Members of the Club at State who have their membership cards but have not received their invitations can secure them from Jerry Kenney, on Thursday, April 1, at noon in room 208.

Lorraine Sullivan is in charge of the arrangements that are being made for the breakfast that is to be held following the Communion at St. Mary's Cathedral that will take place on April 11th.

Nomination of officers for next semester will be made at the meeting of the Newman Club that is to be held on the evening of April 17.

"We would like as many members as possible to turn out for these social events," stated Jack Murphy, president of the club, when discussing plans for the above mentioned affairs.

Worthy Activities in Line for Students

Two events worthy of the consideration of the students are scheduled for the last of this week and the first of next. The dinner tomorrow night which honors the tenth anniversary of Dr. Alexander C. Roberts at the College and the Alpha Phi Gamma World's Fair on Monday night give promise of being two of the most worthwhile activities of the semester.

The opinion is often voiced that students working their way through college as are a great deal of the members of this Student Body, should not be asked to contribute to extra curricular events such as this. It is the opinion of the Golden Gater that this type of activity is just as much a part of college life as are books and classes and that the individual should attempt as much as possible to include admission to such college functions in his budget.

Furthermore, the spirit in which these activities are planned makes them worthy of student support. The decennial dinner is a demonstration of our appreciation to a man who has done a great deal for our college. The Inter-collegiate World's Fair is designed to pay the expense of some outstanding high school student for his first semester at this college.

Therefore, we urge the support of these activities.

This Collegiate World

Morgantown, W. Va.—(ACP)—Photographs of cud-chewing milch cows instead of those of sixteen lovely coeds competing for the title of Miss West Virginia looked up at readers of the Shampain, humorous publication of West Virginia University.

Sizzling with anger at Editor Frank Neill's picture substitution, females held three hectic indignation meetings within the 24-hour period after the magazine was distributed.

The whole controversy hinged on the fact that in order to cast a vote for the beauty queen, a choice of one of the sixteen, a student would have to purchase a copy of the Shampain.

Editor Neill ran the cow photographs because the coeds and their dean, Ruth E. Noer, objected to the publication of the girls' pictures as "commercialization of beauty."

Dear Lid Lifter:

A few issues ago a Mr. M. R. W. took occasion to blast a proposal for compulsory R. O. T. C. training in this institution. May I, with all due respect for the exalted position occupied by the initialed gentleman, take this opportunity to humbly introduce a theory that the aforementioned writer is woefully unacquainted with either the purpose, the methods, the personnel, or the opportunities to be obtained in the ranks of a military unit. If the word compulsory is an obsession with the aforementioned M. W. may I twice as humbly bring the fact to light that we have a year of gym which is compulsory to take and the which, to the best of the writer's knowledge, has succeeded as a time waster to an extent which the ephemeral R. O. T. C. unit would be hard put to eclipse.

Yours in abject servility,

It seems that Long Beach Junior College students were instrumental in organizing a National Intercollegiate Hitch-Hikers Association. Members carry membership cards, which they wave when "thumbing." The purpose of the order is to make the highways safe for hikers.

It sounds as though the above organization has influenced the thoughts of Western Washington's College of Education. They think that since the government's cracking down on everyone but hoboes, the next thing will probably be a "thumb-tax" on hitch-hikers.

We learn (also from the "Viking") that students in Scotland are fined for cutting classes. When the year ends, the collected oughday goes toward buying Christmas presents for college presidents. (Last year, the president of one institution received a stick of gum.)

Triangular Track Meet Tentative

Battle with Santa Rosa Definite in Event Nevada Cancels
Tri-Meet Plans

BULLETIN

San Francisco State, University of Nevada, and Santa Rosa junior college may clash in a triangle track meet at Kezar Stadium this Saturday. However, in the event that the proposed under battle is not scheduled, the Gaters will meet Santa Rosa on the Jaysee field on the same date. Coach Dave Cox made this announcement today.

The guessing game still goes on. With old Jupiter Pluvius still threatening to go into convulsions, sports writers of this and every other college in the state of California are tearing out their hair when editors assign a story on track.

With but one meet, a meet that is so long in the offing that it is almost ancient history, under their belts, the Golden Tide is thinking about rolling against two opponents this Saturday. If you can pick the winner or guess within four points of the final score, the Gater will award you the crochet pink silk bathtub.

Coach Dave Cox was pleased when the first layoff came. The extra time was to be used in vital practice. However, as the precipitation continued, the only practice the squad got was running out to the field and back between showers.

On the other hand, not a great deal is known about the squads of Santa Rosa and Nevada. In fact, a triangle meet would not even be considered if rain had not chopped up the schedules of the respective teams.

If the chain of events continue in the same order fans will begin to doubt if the Gaters really have a track team and that the whole thing is really a hoax. In any event, fans will find out for sure this week end.

Junior Track Varsity Meet Balboa High Squad Today

San Francisco State's Junior Varsity track and field squad is a mighty ambitious group of performers.

With a startling 57 to 55 over Lowell High that was decided in the final event relay race tucked under their belts, the Gater babes will go out after another victory in a triangle meet with Balboa and Sacred Heart today at Kezar.

The prepsters no doubt have different ideas about the outcome. Balboa's aggregation have more than held their own against the best in the city league and will prove tough in the meet.

Foremost in the squad is Frank Kannisto who smashed the Gater All-Stars' meet record while negotiating the 880 yard run in 2:07.3 seconds. Kannisto should prove to be tops in the middle distance races.

Jim Hopkins, no relation to Darryl "Hoppy" Hopkins of the varsity, of the Gaters is picked to lead the field in the sprints. Ernest Peninov and Eric Pantages should bring in first places for State in the weight-tossing events but plenty of competition is expected. Due to enforced lay-off of track squads because of rain, any guess as to the outcome of the remaining events is a good one.

Guiney Gets 'Em

Phoney Mail Pours in

By TIM GUINEY

Still paragraphing and still rambling around: On the other side of the desk sits the guy who runs this sports page, Jim "Toots" Martin, frowning, scowling, cursing, foaming at the mouth, and typing, all simultaneously. He is very distracting, and if he was not my boss I would tell him so. Now he jumps up, screaming: "Hurray! I've got one column of space filled. The sports page won't be totally blank, anyway!"

Since he knows I have already written one story for the sports page, I take this occasion to be hurt, angry, and bewildered, all at the same time, although I know I am no match for "Toots" when it comes to carrying a lot of different moods together. From now on, I will just ignore him.

In desperation we try to continue filling the column, and also continue to wonder how we're going to do it. Here's a little note we received from Maury "Muscle Mind" Schwartz, which goes laka dees:

"Dear Sir: I have read some rotten sports writers in my time, but you sure take the cake. Writers like you come a dime-a-dozen, you phoney. You couldn't write a decent sports story in a million years. Phooey to you from me!"

(Editor's Note: The translation of the above letter from the Greek was made by us. Not bad, eh?)

Linotyper's Note: No, not bad—but not good, either.)

(Writer's Note: Talk it over outside, fellas, I want my column back.)

In answer to the letter by the Mad Moron, another gent drops a letter our way. Saith he: "Forget what that dope says about you. As a sports writer you are tops in my opinion. I read your column over at least 27 times every Wednesday, and enjoy it more each time. You are superb!"

Very truly yours,
Tim Guiney.

(J. Martin's note: Yes, you read it 27 times. I read it 40 times, and still can't figure how such a mess can get on paper.)

(Linotyper's Note: Hurry, my machine can't stand much more of this.)

(Editor's Note: You're both fired! . . . Everybody fired! . . . I'm goin' nuts . . . Let me outa here! . . .)

(Writer's Note: You're going nuts? After being around here, even Schwarz seems like a sane man. I'm Napoleon! Whoops!)

Ru Stone Due for Iron Man Job As Harden Set To Give Him Call in Contests Today and Saturday

Making up for lost time or something, State's undefeated, rained out baseball team will meet three opponents this week. Santa Clara University is scheduled for this afternoon at Santa Clara, Menlo J. C. on Friday, and San Jose State on Saturday.

The Staters will pit Runar Stone against the heavy artillery of Santa Clara today. Runar pitched a five-hit game against Santa Rosa, giving the Gaters a 1-0 victory.

State Wins From Santa Rosa By Score of 1-0

With the first man up in the first inning scoring the only run of the game, State's baseballers defeated the Santa Rosa Junior College nine at the Bear Cub's home diamond 1-0 last Friday afternoon. The victory kept the Gater's slate clean for the year.

Kenny Wilkes, leading off the locals, reached first safely and stole second; Joe Lee smashed a long one to center, but the Jaysee fielder nabbed it for the out; however, Wilkes took third after the catch. Bill Abbey then proceeded to bang a Texas leaguer to right to score Kenny easily.

Although the Gaters managed to get six more hits in the next four innings, they failed to dent the rubber again. But runs were not needed as Runar Stone, hurling his greatest game of all time, held the Junior College men hopeless all during the game, although he had a narrow escape in the final inning when two hits almost produced the tying run, but a throw from Wilkes to Abbey on a single to left nailed the runner at the plate.

Hal Wood led the Gaters' hitting attack along with George Bogdanoff and Abbey. All three batted out two bingles in four trips to the plate. Bogie at last appears to have shaken a four-year batting slump as he has hit safely in three out of his last four trips to bat. Abbey continues to lead the regulars in batting with fifteen hits in thirty-one attempts, although Doug Cray, with eight for thirteen, has the highest percentage.

Soph Dance Success

"One of the most successful social events of the season," said Morley Carrothers, low-sophomore president, in speaking of the class dance held Wednesday evening, March 24.

Approximately 100 couples, most of them State students, attended the affair which was the first social event of the class for the spring semester.

Plans for a class dinner to be held in some down-town restaurant are to be discussed at the next meeting of the group.

Stone will probably get the call in the game Saturday when the Golden Tide clashes with the San Jose Spartans at San Jose. The baseball team scored a close win over the Spartans last season, and revenge will be the order of the day if the Spartan chuckers have anything to say.

WATSON vs. STONE

Bert Watson, ace southpaw, will probably oppose Stone in the Saturday contest. He was the pitcher credited with the loss of last season. He has been pitching outstanding ball for the San Jose team.

Friday the team will travel to Menlo for the game with the J. C. team. No word as to the strength of the Junior College squad was divulged to the Gater reporters.

ABBEY LEADS

Led by Bill Abbey, hard hitting catcher, the nine has been hitting for an approximate .325 clip. Abbey has an average of approximately .480. He has collected two homers, one triple and two doubles in recent games. Kenny Wilkes is second in the batting column.

Hal Harden will probably give the call to Andy Gavron for mound duty in the Menlo contest.

Intra-Mural Baseball On Tap Tomorrow

Providing it doesn't rain, providing the intra-mural manager shows up; providing the teams show up, the intra-mural baseball league will have gotten under way by the time that this reaches the public eye.

According to the schedule of Dave Shutz, the sluggers from the Publications office will tangle with Collins Sluggers on April 1. The joke may be on the public according to reports. The Golden Gater squad boasts of some hidden talent. Will Smith, former editor, will probably assume the burden of pitching to the Collins Sluggers.

Bill Rose is manager of the team that will carry the banner of the Publications Office to the wars. The roster of the Pub team includes Hal Widney, Bob Steenburg, Rose, Smith, and Harold Jacobs.

April 2 will see Paiva's Killers battling Callums Clowns. April 5 will see the Gorillas versus the Razzamattazes.

Easter Ado Topped By Engagement News

A series of dinners was held by the few remaining members of Phi Lambda Chi after the other girls had gone home for the Easter holidays.

Fleishhacker Zoo, Fishermen's Wharf and a prominent Italian restaurant were among the places they visited. Each excursion was held on a different day and was completed by a dinner down town. Sunday, March 28, Harriet White, president of the society, announced at a birthday party in her honor, her engagement to Howard Kartoian. Mary Louise Godfrey was in charge, of all the plans for the affair, which was carried out in typical Easter style.

L'esprit Revive! French Club Active

Members of the French Club at last embarked upon their social season last Wednesday evening when they attended a lecture given at the French Alliance by Mr. Julien Benda, prominent French lecturer and author.

He spoke of the difference between intelligence and culture and stated that a man need not be overly intelligent to be cultivated. Before the lecture the group had dinner at a French restaurant and then had a short ride around the points of interest of the city by Arthur Cerf, who acted as chauffeur for the club. Tuesday, a special meeting was called in order for the members to decide upon plans for their entry for the A. P. G. Fair.

Janet Gaynor says: "Leading artists of the screen prefer Luckies"

"I live at the beach most of the year and there is hardly a weekend that a number of friends don't drop in. Naturally, I keep several brands of cigarettes on hand for guests, but the Luckies are always the first to disappear. I suppose it's just natural that Luckies would be the favorite brand because most of my friends in pictures have discovered that the long hours of rehearsing and shooting at the studio place a severe tax on the throat. Leading artists of the screen prefer Luckies because they are a light smoke that sympathizes with tender throats."

Janet Gaynor

FEMININE STAR OF DAVID O. SELZNICK'S
TECHNICOLOR PRODUCTION OF "A STAR IS BORN"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Gaynor verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
